WARNING OF COPYRIGHT RESTRICTIONS

Warning concerning copyright restriction: The copyright law of the U. S. (Title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material. Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries and archives are authorized to a photocopy or reproduction. One of the specified conditions is that the photocopy or reproduction is not to be “used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship or research.” If a user make a request for, or later uses, a photocopy or reproduction for purposes in excess of “fair use,” that user may be liable for copyright infringement. This institution reserves the right to refuse to accept a copying order if, in its judgment, fulfillment of the order would involve violation of copyright law.

Duplication of items from The Mahoning Valley Historical Society's collections is governed by the policy stated above. Further reproduction of items from the Society's collections is permitted only after the completion of a PERMISSION TO PUBLISH and STATEMENT OF USE Form. The completion of said form(s) does not imply clearance of any copyright restrictions other than those vested in the Mahoning Valley Historical Society. It is the responsibility of the party using photographs and other duplicates from the collections of The Mahoning Valley Historical Society to ascertain and clear copyright restrictions provided from the Society's collection.

Conditions of Reproduction

1. The right to reproduce materials held in the collections of the Mahoning Valley Historical Society is granted on a one-time basis only. Any further reproduction of this material is prohibited without the express written permission of the Mahoning Valley Historical Society.
2. The Mahoning Valley Historical Society does not sell duplications, but rather performs the service of reproduction for which a fee is charged.
3. Materials are reproduced for research use only and may not be used for either publication, exhibition, or any other public purpose without the express written permission of the Mahoning Valley Historical Society.
4. Any publication, exhibition, or other public use of material reproduced from the collections of the Society must credit the Mahoning Valley Historical Society.
5. In requesting permission to reproduce materials from the collections of the Mahoning Valley Historical Society as described, the requestor agrees to hold harmless the Mahoning Valley Historical Society and its Directors, Officers, and agents either jointly or severally from any action involving infringement of the rights of any person or their heirs and descendants in common law or under statutory copyright.
6. Permission to reproduce materials in which reproduction rights are reserved must be granted by signed written permission of the persons holding those rights.
7. Consideration of the requirements of copyrights is the responsibility of the author, producer, and publisher. Applicants assume all responsibility for questions of copyright and invasion of privacy that may arise in copying and using the materials.
8. Permission may be granted to reproduce portions of the collections of the Mahoning Valley Historical Society. The reproduction in their entirety of any of the collections of the Mahoning Valley Historical Society is prohibited.
