

Public Library of Youngstown & Mahoning County - Main Library

The Public Library of Youngstown and Mahoning County is a system comprised of branch libraries throughout Mahoning County, plus the Main Library. Its mission is to be a dependable source of reliable information and of guidance in locating and evaluating the information people need to be successful in all aspects of their lives. The Library is a center of community life that provides all residents with ample opportunities for personal growth and satisfying recreation.

The Main Library offers extensive programming for all ages, all free of charge, including: Business & Investment Center workshops and tours, Genealogy instruction, Grant Center tours and programs for non-profit organizations, and Smart Money financial education programs. The Main Library also offers a reference service free of charge in person, telephone, email, and through Ohio's live online reference service, KnowItNow.
