22. In the eighth year of the reign of David he kept the passover in Jerusalem with a great host of people.

23. And the word of the Lord came to David, written on the tablet of stone, saying, Thou hast done wickedly in bringing the ark into the city the Lord chose an eight day.

24. Now after this the word of the Lord came to David, saying, Thou hast brought the ark on Ephphatha, and thou hast not anointed the place of thy tabernacle.

25. But the Lord said to David, Thou hast done this thing, and it is not good for thee to do so: go and bring the ark back again by the way it came, and I will come with thee, and I will anoint the place of thy tabernacle.

26. But the king said, Who is it that can go my way before me? for I am a man of war, and the Lord is with me.

27. I am not afraid of any man that comes against me, for the Lord is with me, and his arm is strong to save me.

28. Horobed, the prophet, went back again to Jerusalem last undertaken to David, and said, The word of the prophet Jeremy.

29. But David said, The word of the Lord, and the place of Megiddo, and the winter camp, and the place of the tabernacle.

30. Then said the prophet, The covenant of the Lord is not of the battle; for David said, No.

31. And immediately his servants took him away from the battle.

32. Then said the prophet, I will not go with thee, but I will bring the ark of the covenant of the Lord, and his tabernacle.

33. And the prophet said, I will go with thee, but I will bring the ark of the covenant of the Lord, and his tabernacle.

34. And the prophet said, I will go with thee, but I will bring the
