Esteemed Poet and Gracious Wife Reach Golden Wedding on Friday

(Photo by Hart & McCarty)

MR. AND MRS. MICHAEL MCGOVERN

Friday must have been an inspiration to Michael McGovern, inspiring the local poet to woo the Muse for the day marked the golden wedding anniversary of the widely known and admired citizen and his very gracious wife. Mr. and Mrs. McGovern both are of a retiring disposition and did not permit their daughters and sons to celebrate the occasion, though they did consent to sit for pictures for their family, and the family in turn permitted the Vindicator to help surprise the couple with "cuts" of Mr. and Mrs. McGovern.

Mr. McGovern was for years in the mills of the valley and later in the employ of the city, until retiring recently. Throughout his life he has had high ideals and has devoted his leisure to reading and poetry and painting. As a poet he has achieved some fine success and his paintings have also been widely admired. Mrs. McGovern has achieved success in the fine role of wife and mother. The couple were blessed with 13 children, a son William passing away a couple of years ago. Sons and daughters are as follows: John P., Patrick J., Martin J., Thomas F., Mrs. James P. McGuire, Miss Agnes McGovern, Mrs. Frank J. O'Donnell. Mr. and Mrs. McGovern have been members of St. Columba's church for many years. Throughout the city people will be interested in their 60th anniversary and will wish them many happy years to come.

Last evening neighbors and friends assembled surprise fashion in the home of Mr. and Mrs. McGovern and spent some very happy hours therein. Five hundred, music, refreshments and delightful reminiscences of hospitalities of the honor couple made the occasion memorable. Mrs. James McCann and Jack McCann won the favors. Miss Myra Swan, Cincinnati, and Mrs. Frank Mitchell, Pittsburgh, were out-of-town guests.
