Why Memories of Christmas Past Matters

For 18 years, Memories of Christmas Past has welcomed thousands of visitors from across Northeast Ohio to begin their holiday season at the historic Arms Family Museum.

This year, the tradition becomes even more extraordinary through White Christmas: The Exhibition, presented in partnership with the Rosemary Clooney House (Augusta, Kentucky), The Bing Crosby Museum, and private collectors. Visitors will enjoy a rare opportunity to experience authentic artifacts from Paramount Pictures' 1942 film Holiday Inn, the beloved 1954 classic White Christmas, and the history of Irving Berlin's iconic song, creating an exhibition unlike anything previously presented in the Mahoning Valley.

Families return year after year because Memories of Christmas Past blends beautifully decorated historic rooms, holiday traditions, and immersive seasonal experiences with exciting new exhibitions that inspire both first time visitors and returning guests.

By sponsoring Memories of Christmas Past, your organization helps preserve one of the region's most cherished holiday traditions while supporting the Mahoning Valley Historical Society's mission to preserve, share, and celebrate the history of our community.

We are grateful to the businesses and individuals whose generosity makes this extraordinary experience possible.

A Legacy Worth Preserving

Housed in the historic Greystone residence, the Arms Family Museum is one of the Mahoning Valley's most treasured cultural landmarks.

Through exhibitions, educational programs, and community events, the Mahoning Valley Historical Society preserves the stories, people, and places that have shaped our region, ensuring they remain accessible for future generations.

More than a museum, it serves as a gathering place where history comes to life, connecting families, students, and visitors with the heritage that defines our community. By preserving the past, the museum strengthens our sense of identity, celebrates local pride, and inspires a deeper appreciation for the generations who came before us.

Each holiday season, Memories of Christmas Past transforms the museum into one of Northeast Ohio's most cherished seasonal traditions.

Thousands of visitors from across the region experience beautifully decorated historic rooms, cherished holiday traditions, and immersive seasonal experiences that create new memories while celebrating the past.

By supporting the Arms Family Museum, sponsors invest in more than a single exhibition. They help preserve an important piece of the Mahoning Valley's history, enrich educational opportunities, strengthen our community, and ensure this beloved tradition continues to inspire future generations.
